RADIO CONTROL

Clocks with radio control movements receive its signal from the world's most accurate clock, the U.S. Government's atomic clock in Colorado. The time is broadcasted 24-hours a day via a low frequency radio signal. Once you have your clock set to the right time zone you are done; the clock will do the rest.

Automatic Daylight Savings Adjustment

Clocks with DST (Daylight Saving Time) Automatic Daylight Saving Adjustment function. Once the clocks are set to the correct time, they will be advanced by one hour during the beginning of DST automatically. When DST ends, the clocks will go back one hour.

OVERSIZED

Clocks 24" and above are subject to oversized shipping charges.

TEMPERED GLASS

Made with a tempered glass material.

OUTDOOR/INDOOR

Specially designed and sealed for outdoor use.

SILENT MOVEMENT

Built with a silent movement and a sweep second hand.

On the heels of our popular Charleston clock/thermometer, Infinity Instruments is introducing another two-sided clock and thermometer with a vintage look—the Beauregard. This eye-catching clock/thermometer unit features a weather copper finish, antique style clock hands and a vintage clock face with black and red motifs. This outdoor clock/thermometer features a hinge design which can be opened to access the battery and temperature controls. This unit also comes with an old-fashioned-style bracket for easy hanging. If you are looking to give your outdoor space vintage flair, the Beauregard is your first choice.

The Bookend from Infinity Instruments is a two-sided clock/thermometer with a twist. With the Bookend, both the thermometer and clock are placed side-by-side for easy viewing. Both instruments are surrounded by an eye-catching wrought-iron style metal frame for added style and durability. Both the clock and thermometer features black metal hands and easy-to-read Arabic numerals set against a faded clock face for vintage appeal. Additionally, the clock features sweep movement and the thermometer is adjustable and accurately measures ambient temperature. The Bookend is the ideal accessory for your patio, shed or garden.
